Wondering what to do with all of those perfect pictures of yourself? Running out of great office jokes and pranks? It sounds like you're ready to celebrify yourself.

CELEBRIFICATION'S EASY. JUST FOLLOW THESE STEPS:

1. Fire up Photoshop (if need be, recruit an art director, designer, or Photoshop-savvy friend to help)
2. Select one of those great shots of yourself (knowing that it's about to be vastly improved upon) and open it in Photoshop
3. Browse our packaged selection (artkit.psd) of Hollywood noses, eyes and mouths—and treat yourself to a face full of digital touchups
4. Start turning that office-handsome mug into something actually worthy of red carpet treatment
5. Print finished piece and share
6. Enjoy the guffawing and soak up the compliments
